

Lets hear Testimonies from Sunrise Baptist Church

These special Christians from Sunrise came every week to do skits. As you can see God worked, but not just on this night but every night they were here.

Our youth did a skit 'I Can Only Imagine' During this skit a little girl began to cry. It wasn't a normal cry, it was a cry that proved that someone was so overwhelmed, so heartbroken that words couldn't explain.

We need to be able to cry out to GOD in a heartbroken way. We need to learn to be heartbroken.

A little boy took our pastor by the hand and took him out to the new dining hall to pray. Our youth began to pray with him, as the pastor talked to him, we stood up and looked around and the dining hall was full of children praying!!

Children that were completely heartbroken. We made our way to each group to pray with them. They were younger and they were older. GOD IS GOOD!!! Slowly one by one the children raised their heads to hug someone, only to say. GOD SAVED ME!

There was so many different emotions going on that I felt bi-polar. I was crying while smiling. These kids have become family to me. So many of them have reached out and confided in me. There is ones that look to me as a role model. They are my family.

They are my life.

I know without a doubt that GOD has called me to be a missionary. I prayed many times that GOD would send me on a mission with the ones I love. I believe with everything in me that GOD sent me to Moments with The Master. This summer has been my mission.

Eight saved, sixteen rededicated. That's simply enough said.

Mandy continues to be a blessing. She volunteered to work at camp this summer and continues to come on weekends to teach the girls, "Preparing to be his Help Meet" By Debi Pearl. She gives her all for these kids.

Tuesday GOD spoke to me. He laid it upon my heart to tell the youth group that tonight was all about obeying the Father no matter what he told us to do and to obey him at that time, not put it off until later. We may not have understood, but in his time He would show us. Also, to always trust in the LORD. He would see us through everything, the good and the bad. On the way to camp we could feel that something great was going to happen, we didn't know what but we knew something good was going to. When the Mini Servants started doing their skits you could feel JESUS flowing from breast to breast and we knew He was knocking at hearts. We are so very thankful for each and every kid that accepted JESUS into their hearts. -Brian Davidson

Tuesday of the 9-18 camp week was truly amazing and in a way unbelievable. The kids just got there Monday and the next day they were all opening up, which was unusual. Our youth group, the Radical Servants from Sunrise Baptist church, came to camp to do skits. We were planning on doing six or seven skits but GOD had a different plan. We got through three skits and GOD began to deal with their hearts. Before I knew it we were all gathered in groups all around the lodge praying with one another. At the end of the night eight got saved and sixteen rededicated.

-Talk about a blessing!
