

WHAT NOW??

Busy, Busy Busy

We are busy deep cleaning the place, getting yard work done that was stopped with Eric's being sic, catching up on paper work in between all Eric's Dr appointments.

I, Faith, am blessed to spend time with friends who don't drive, taking them places. Encouraging others as they encourage us!

God has blessed us with an awesome mission!

Trip to Michigan

We had great visits with the Scholtens, board members, Pine Grove CRC who has helped in many ways, and many who helped with the house and the truck and other projects here!

We met many who have been praying for us. Hopefully we made some new recruits to help with camp.

It was definitely a time of uplifting for us to be there. Plus just getting away from all the work here.

Painting Classes

I have begun painting again, since I have more time again. We have expanded our class, we meet on Thursday night, 6:30 and starting a class on Saturdays At 2:00 This is something that is not offered any where near here. We just have fun, and it is so good for all of us as we use the creativity God has given us. We are all improving. Come join us if you live close, you don't have to have talent!

We are planning for our Christmas party and always planning for the next years camps!
